ABSTRACT

Intended for evaluation of local compliance with special education federal and state legal requirements, this compliance review document includes both the compliance requirements and the criteria by which compliance is determined during the onsite compliance review of Georgia local school systems and state-operated programs. Each legal requirement is addressed with criteria that specify expectations to be met for compliance. Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) and state rule requirements are listed in the left column. The bullets on the right include specific criteria used in determining whether compliance with the requirements can be verified. Many requirements also contain data indicators. These local indicators provide guidance on results data that may be collected and reviewed when considering each requirement. The locally collected data can also be analyzed and reviewed by school system personnel to assist in improving results for students with disabilities. The document includes requirements and criteria for the following areas: child find, due process, protection in evaluation, Individualized Education Programs, free appropriate public education, least restrictive environment, confidentiality, personnel development, use of funds, local applications, and private schools. COMPLIANCE REVIEW CRITERIA

Introduction

The Compliance Review Document includes both the compliance requirements and the criteria by which compliance is determined during the on-site Compliance Review of local school systems and state-operated programs (LSSs/SOPs). It serves as the Self-Study Inventory and enables the LSS/SOP and the Compliance Review team to use the same criteria for evaluation. The Division for Exceptional Students at the Georgia Department of Education intends to clearly communicate expectations for compliance with the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) and the Georgia Special Education Rules.

In preparing the criteria, the staff at Division for Exceptional Students utilized upon the expertise of parents and professionals serving on the Georgia IDEA Implementation Advisory Group and its subcommittees. Each subcommittee submitted recommendations for the compliance criteria for its assigned areas of IDEA implementation review. At the 1998 Special Education Administrators' Conference, suggestions for improvement of the Compliance Review Process were requested. Information from past surveys completed by special education directors at the end of on-site Compliance Reviews was also considered. The Division for Exceptional Students, in collaboration with other Georgia Department of Education personnel, completed a review of the requirements of IDEA and the Georgia Special Education Rules, adopted by the State Board of Education, July 2000. Any affected changes were incorporated into the existing document.

Each legal requirement is addressed with criteria that specify expectations to be met for compliance. IDEA and state rule requirements are listed in the left column. The bullets on the right include specific criteria used in determining whether compliance with the requirement can be verified. Many requirements also contain data indicators (asterisked items). These local indicators provide guidance on results data that may be collected and reviewed when considering each requirement. The locally collected data can also be analyzed and reviewed by school system personnel to assist in improving results for students with disabilities in their education programs.

The Compliance Action Plan (CAP) section will be used in the development of corrective action strategies in response to the Compliance Review Report for the LSS/SOP. It will be prepared by the Compliance Review Team and will specify the results which must be achieved for compliance to be verified. The CAP should be reviewed with the Compliance Review Report. The superintendent's or agency director's signature on the CAP indicates that the LSS/SOP will implement procedural correction activities needed to bring the system into compliance. Isolated compliance findings on the Compliance Review Report must be submitted with the CAP. Verification of the implementation of each corrective assurance statement will be completed during the post Compliance Review that will occur within one calendar year from the month of the on-site visit.

The Division for Exceptional Students intends for the Compliance Review Document to be used as an on-going local self-assessment. It is hoped that it will be made available to all special education staff, general education administrators, teachers and support personnel. It can serve as a valuable reference tool in meeting requirements of federal and state laws, rules and regulations.

The Compliance Review Document is available to parents of students with disabilities at their local school systems' special education office, at the Georgia Learning Resources System (GLRS) centers throughout the state, and is posted at the Georgia Department of Education web site, www.doe.k12.ga.us.

If there are comments or questions regarding the Compliance Review Document or process, please contact Mr. Philip H. Pickens, Interim Director, Division for Exceptional Students at (404) 656-3963 or by email at ppickens@doe.k12.ga.us.

 - ☐ A summary and interpretation of results of the psychological evaluation that indicates the presence of emotional factors affecting educational performance. Cognitive results do not need to be documented for emotional/behavioral disorders eligibility. The focus is on the emotional factors influencing educational performance.
 - ☐ Documentation of the significant deficits in educational performance which may include formal and informal learning of academic material, social, and/or personal skills.
 - ☐ Documentation of social history from a variety of sources that focuses on behavior problems and emotional factors noted in a variety of settings (i.e., classroom, lunchroom, recess, home, and community).
 - ☐ Behavioral observation(s) and checklist(s) which summarize the results indicating the incidence of one or more of the characteristics of emotional/behavioral disorders over a significant amount of time.
 - ☐ One (or more) characteristic of an emotional/behavioral disorder that has been present over a period of time is identified and the basis for the determination is documented.

14i. The LSS/SOP determines students' eligibility for special education based on the requirements in the Georgia Special Education Rules for students with Specific Learning Disabilities.

COMPLIANCE:

- ☐ Verified
- ☐ Not Verified
- ☐ Systemic
- ☐ Isolated

CRITERIA:

- ☐ There are sufficient data in students' records to support eligibility decisions in accordance with the current eligibility requirements for students with specific learning disabilities.
- ☐ Alternative approaches to the curriculum attempted through the SST process are documented for initial referrals.
- ☐ If the student is being reevaluated, documentation of prior strategies includes approaches used in the current special education services program.
- ☐ The results of a psychological evaluation administered within the last 12 months are documented for initial referrals.
 - ☐ The documentation includes instruments used, date(s) of the evaluation, and a summary of the results, including the composite score.
 - ☐ When an alternate cognitive score other than a composite score is used to determine a discrepancy:
 - ☐ A rationale for the use of the alternative cognitive score as a better estimate of the student's overall functioning is stated.
 - ☐ The specific alternate cognitive score being used to determine the discrepancy is clearly indicated.
- ☐ Weaknesses are indicated, along with the source for the information, in the areas of learning behavior/psychological processes: attending, organization, discrimination/perception, sensory integration, sequencing, memory, and conceptualization/reasoning.
- ☐ Evidence of strengths in processing that are commensurate with the estimated cognitive ability are summarized/indicated.
- ☐ The results of the educational evaluation are documented on the eligibility report.
 - ☐ A brief statement of status is written for each of the seven areas where the student is experiencing difficulty in the classroom: oral expression, listening comprehension, written expression, basic reading skills, reading comprehension, math calculation, math reasoning.
 - ☐ When underachievement is not suspected, statements such as "on grade level," "age appropriate skills," or "within normal limits" are acceptable.

COMPLIANCE REVIEW DOCUMENT

FY 01

Specific Learning Disabilities

- ☐ When underachievement is suspected, the statement of status clearly describes the problem. (i.e., "Difficulty with phonics," "Problems with math reasoning," "Can't express self orally and be understood," etc.).
- ☐ The results of at least one formal achievement assessment for each area in which the statement of status indicates possible underachievement.
- ☐ The reporting of assessment scores in the seven areas (with the date and the instrument used) includes:
 - ☐ At least two assessments in the areas(s) that have a severe discrepancy confirm the deficit.
 - ☐ A 20-point discrepancy is determined for an initial SLD eligibility determination, even if the student is already eligible under another disability category.
 - ☐ A 15-point discrepancy is determined for a reevaluation.
 - ☐ A severe discrepancy is clearly indicated for each applicable area.
 - ☐ The results of a second formal or informal assessment are documented when the results of the first assessment in an area of suspected deficit indicates that a deficit does exist.
 - ☐ Additional assessment(s) when results of the two assessments are inconsistent.
- ☐ Discrepancies documented in age-equivalent scores at least one year below chronological age expectancy (that are not the result of lack of experience) for kindergarten, first grade, or preschool students.
- ☐ Discrepancy is determined by evaluation in the areas of communication and/or readiness skills.
- ☐ Learning strengths based on classroom performance or assessments.

REQUIRED SUPPORTING EVIDENCE

- ☐ There is one observation and recorded results summarized for each area of suspected underachievement. (Problematic classroom social interactions, if any, may also be reported.)
 - ☐ A psychologist or a teacher certified in SLD or interrelated conducts the observation.
- ☐ The observation information is attached to the eligibility report/summarized on the report.
- ☐ There is one work sample in each area of suspected deficit attached to the eligibility report.
 - ☐ The work samples relate to the area(s) of referral/deficit.

COMPLIANCE REVIEW DOCUMENT

FY 01

Specific Learning Disabilities

- ☐ The work samples have been analyzed and annotated to indicate how they support the conclusion that the student has a specific learning disability.
- ☐ Annotation includes grade level of the assignment and a summary of the student's performance, such as the percentage correct, a letter grade or a narrative comparing the student's performance with the expected performance.
- ☐ Educationally relevant medical information is documented, if applicable.
- ☐ Exclusionary factors are considered and determined not to be the major factor causing the deficits.
- ☐ The conclusion section summarizes the relationship between the psychological processing problems and the achievement deficits to support the eligibility determination.
 - ☐ The nature of the specific learning disability includes a statement of the basic psychological processing problem(s) and which of the seven area(s) is/are affected.
 - ☐ There is evidence of one or more severe discrepancies and the team concludes that the student has a specific learning disability.
 - ☐ Professional judgement is clearly documented in terms of the specific factors considered in the eligibility decision and how those factors affected the conclusion. Only stating that "professional judgement was used" is not adequate.
- ☐ The signatures of required team members and the date of the meeting are indicated.
 - ☐ Signatures of the evaluator, SLD or interrelated teacher, and the general classroom teacher are documented. (Both the person's name and the position are indicated.)
(The evaluator is a person qualified to conduct individual diagnostic examinations of students, i.e., a school psychologist, speech/language pathologist, remedial reading teacher)
 - ☐ Documentation indicates that the parent participated or was invited to participate as a member of the eligibility team. Acceptable documentation could include a signature on the eligibility report, a copy of the meeting notice, or other evidence that the parent participated/was invited.
- ☐ If a team member dissents, his/her signature is included separately with the dissenting report.

19b. The IEPs of students with disabilities include

consideration of special

factors in the development of the IEP.

COMPLIANCE:

- ☐ Verified
- ☐ Not Verified
- ☐ Systemic
- ☐ Isolated

CRITERIA:

When a special factor applies to the individual student, the IEP contains evidence that the required factors were considered by the IEP team.

For a student whose behavior impedes his/her learning or that of others: there is evidence of consideration, when appropriate, of strategies, including positive behavioral interventions, strategies, and supports to address that behavior.

- ☐ When the IEP team determines that the student's behavior interferes with his/her learning or that of others, a behavior intervention plan is included in the IEP which contains:
- ☐ Target behaviors (the behavior to be changed).
 - ☐ Positive behavioral interventions, strategies and supports.
 - ☐ Intervention strategies, including consequences.

For a student with limited English proficiency, there is evidence that the language needs of the student have been considered as they relate to the student's IEP.

- ☐ When the present levels of performance or evaluation data indicate that the student has limited English proficiency (primary language is not English), the student's language needs related to implementation of the IEP are considered and decisions are documented.

For a student who is blind or visually impaired, there is provision for instruction in Braille and the use of Braille unless the IEP team determines, after an evaluation of the student's reading and writing skills, needs, appropriate reading and writing media (including an evaluation of the student's future needs for instruction in Braille or the use of Braille) that instruction in Braille or the use of Braille is not appropriate for the student.

- ☐ The IEPs of the students who are blind or visually impaired call for instruction in Braille or the use of Braille unless the IEP team decides, after evaluation of current and future needs, that Braille instruction and use of Braille is not appropriate.
- ☐ When the IEP team decides Braille is not appropriate for the student, the IEP contains documentation of that decision.

FY 01

Consideration of special
factors (continued)For a student with communication needs:

- ☐ When the present levels of performance or evaluation data indicate that the student has communication needs which have not been addressed in another section of the IEP, those needs are considered and the services needed, if any, are documented.

For a student who is deaf or hard of hearing:

- ☐ There is evidence in the IEP that the following needs have been considered:
- ☐ Language and communication needs.
 - ☐ A full range of needs, including opportunities for direct communication with peers and professional personnel in the student's language and communication mode.
 - ☐ Academic levels.

Consideration of whether the student requires assistive technology devices and services:

- ☐ When the present level of performance or any evaluation data indicate a possible need for assistive technology devices or services, the IEP contains documentation that these needs are considered.
- ☐ If the IEP team determines that the student needs assistive technology devices or services, these decisions are documented and addressed with goals and objectives, as necessary.
- ☐ If the IEP team determines that a student needs assistive technology devices or services, the device or service is clearly described in the IEP.
- * The availability and use of a full range of assistive technology devices, as appropriate, increases.
- * The percentage of students with disabilities who have identified behavioral needs and receive positive behavioral supports consistent with the IEP increases.

ENVIRONMENT

32b. Special education classes, special schools, separate schooling or other removal of students with disabilities from the regular education environment occurs only when the nature and severity of the disability is such that education in regular classes with the use of supplementary aids and services cannot be achieved satisfactorily.

COMPLIANCE:

☐ Verified
☐ Not Verified

☐ Systemic
☐ Isolated

CRITERIA:

- ☐ Documentation in the IEP/placement minutes indicates that regular class placement with supplementary aids and services has been considered for every student with a disability.
- ☐ When the IEP/Placement team makes a final placement recommendation to remove a student with disabilities from the regular class (i.e., resource or self-contained special education class, a special or separate school, or removal from the regular class for other services), the IEP/placement minutes document the reasons.
- ☐ The decision to place a student out of the regular class (in a special education class, separate or special school or to remove the student from the regular education environment for other services) is made based on the student's IEP.
- * Placement outside of the regular classroom environment is not based on a disability category.
- * Placement decisions are made based on individual needs, rather than on a funding formula.
- * The number of students with disabilities in restrictive settings who are moved to less restrictive settings (based on a review of the IEP and available evaluation data), increases, as appropriate.
- * The percentage of students with disabilities in each disability category, along with each point of the continuum, is comparable to national/state data.
